

Villain

Blames self and others

craftedleadership

craftedleadership.com

Villain

You will know you are in the villain position if you feel your opinion is absolutely correct, and you only search for evidence that supports your claims. The villain plays out their role by declaring they "know" they are "right," thus stifling open discussion and keeping attention on the problem.

Control

Where to place blame

Enemies to conquer

People to criticize

Being right or proving someone wrong

Domination

◀ Seeks Out

Says Things Like ▶

"You're doing it wrong"

"I'm so stupid"

"It should be different"

"I know I'm right"

"Why don't they get it?"

"You let me down"

"You always..."

"You never..."

Based on work developed by Dr. Stephen Karpman and hendricks.com

craftedleadership.com

